For his important contributions in the field of art and culture, the Queen of the Netherlands knighted him with the Order of Oranje-Nassau in 1999.

Every day we need to build the Kingdom of God and its justice. This book contains important foundations. A message of hope in a world of confusion,
Prof Jan Peter Balkenende, former prime-minister of The Netherlands

This book discusses the most fundamental of Christ's issues, That is the invasion of fallen man's society with the Kingdom of God. Even more to the point, the invasion of that Kingdom now and not simply in the 'sweet bye and bye',
Dennis Peacocke, California

If you follow his thinking carefully, and begin to build on it for yourself, you are likely to be drawn into a somewhat unnerving adventure into a real Christianity,
Rev. John Peck, UK

This is a practical book, It provokes your thought and revives hope. It will help finish that which Christ began,
Dr. John Smith, PHD, Australia

This collection of meditations hints at the truth that legal, political, economic justice and spiritual life need to be opened for Gods wisdom, His 'shalom'. This book is a vigorous appeal.
Prof. Calvin Seerveld, Canada

This book rethinks the texts of the Gospels and that results in a great panorama of the purpose of God's Kingdom. It is all suddenly new and fresh,
Ralph van Manen, singer-songwriter, the Netherlands
